

HEGENSCHEIDT-MFD GmbH POLICY STATEMENTS

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

In over 100 years of existence Hegenscheidt MFD has developed a reputation as a specialist and partner and has repeatedly proved this to be justified.

As a manufacturer of high quality machine tools and equipment it is our fundamental duty to take particular care in the development, design, sale, manufacture, testing and service of new products which are suited to the market.

It follows that a systematic quality management system has primary importance within the scope of our corporate policies.

This quality management system describes the system for quality adopted by Hegenscheidt MFD and is equally a constant working reference for all employees of the company.

The maintenance of the quality system is the responsibility of the Quality Assurance Department.

By this, the Management of Hegenscheidt MFD fulfils its commitment to the organisational and supervisory duties within the company and underscores its quality consciousness. It hereby approves the quality management system described in the quality manual and obliges itself to ensure that this is followed in implementing its contracts.
